

Welcome to Sneak peek of my first book 'You Can Have It All'!

For many years now, I've been thinking that this book you're holding right now, in your hands, is going to be called "A Life Full of Miracles." On June 24, 2017, in Maui, this title changed and was replaced by another one: "You can have it all."

This, like many other things in my life, happened quite unexpectedly. I went for a second time to the Hay House writers' seminar. By merely following signs, it got me to the first and second seminars. These types of signs are precisely what I'm going to talk about in the book.

What happened at the first seminar that was in Las Vegas, you wonder?

I was sitting quietly in the hall, and at some point, I received a message in my head by Dr. Dyer, who left this world four years ago. With a request to tell Reid Tracy that he wants him to continue to "write" through him.

I've been transmitting messages not once nor twice from people that have passed away to their loved ones. Almost every time it was unexpected, I refused at first and finally did it anyways. However, to convey a message to the CEO of Hay House from Dr. Wayne Dyer, that sounds completely absurd. How would I possibly go by it?

I will not go into details about what had happened, but the signs were definite - I must go to that second seminar. After I was convinced not at 100%, but at 1000% that I must go, I ended up going to Maui in Hawaii.

I'm sitting there again quietly, listening to the speakers to find out how these people write their books and... Again I hear the same message from Dr. Dyer:

- You must tell my dear Reid Tracy that I would like to keep writing through him.

I again said:

My most profound respects to you, but it's not going to happen.

Then he continued:

- If you don't tell him now, you will then have to go to a third seminar. There, you have to be able to convey my message to him; it's up to you...

Oops! I can't let that happen anymore.

Since I am already feeling guilty about traveling often, going here and there and spending money, I am most definitely not going back there a third time.

This is not going to happen; I had made up my mind now.

I could barely wait for my lunch break, as I'm already approaching Reid, who, by the way, is one of the finest, most humble, and incredibly down-to-earth person I've ever met, and I said to him:

- You can always consult with other mediums, which will confirm what I am about to tell you, and it is that Dr. Dyer wants to continue writing through you.

Then immediately after saying that, I felt immense relief, it's like a weight was lifted off my shoulders and I continued:

- My work here is done, and of course, you can decide what you're going to do about it. I went to eat my lunch outside and surrounded myself with the beauty, tranquility, and magic of Maui. Not long time after that, another message came to me:

"The title of your book will be: "You can have it all!"

The second I heard it, it felt right! Therefore, I felt no resistance and accepted it.

If you think about it, the new title makes much more sense. Like that, I am speaking to you guys, the readers, not about myself.

Let me briefly tell you what kind of person I used to be:

I did not want to get married, I did not want to have kids, and let alone so many! For the first two, I changed my mind because of typical "human" reasons, but the five after that – the decision we took was after we followed the signs that we were given.

One of the reasons why I did not want to get married is because I wanted to make a career for myself. I desired to become an engineer and invent such a unique device that will revolutionize and improve people's lives. I had no idea what this machine was going to be, but I was hoping to find out.

I became an engineer after all, except I didn't create the machine I wanted.

However, as I realized recently - helping you to decode signs that you are given, you will have much better life, you will accomplish much more and with less efforts.

You will know when you're on the right track, and when you're not. Or at least in most of the time. Which is a super device, except you can't see it!

The other reason I did not want to get married is that I'm a very independent person that loves freedom. I unequivocally wanted my freedom. I didn't want some guy to tell me what to do, what not to do, and so forth.

“Man proposes, God disposes.” - Edwin Landseer

Don't get me wrong, I have no regret regarding what happened because my life exceeded all my expectations in every possible way. My life turned out to be even more enjoyable, fulfilling, prosperous, and never in my wildest dreams would I have imagined being where I am today.

Back to the previous title I had chosen: A life full of Miracles.

Let me tell you my vision about miracles.

I don't know when my higher- self spoke with Albert Einstein, but it turns out that many of my most important beliefs are based on his perspective on life.

One of them being:

“There are only two ways to live your life. One is, to believe that nothing is a miracle. The other is, that everything is a miracle.”

I do believe that miracles exist! At the same time, because I am an engineer, I must immediately make a substantial remark: These are "miracles" until the moment we realize that it is science, facts, some of them which have already been successfully proven.

So, we're not talking about any fables or ridiculous fantasies...

However, for now, I will call them miracles, and I will immediately list a small part of them:

I have seven beautiful children, safe and sound. Each and one of them is already working or both - studying and working, and they have taken their lives in their own hands.

With all of them, we have harmonious and warm relationships, in our family, reigns love, peace, and harmony.

When we decided to have a third child, it turned out that I had all kinds of problems, and one of the leading doctors in the city said that if I ever get pregnant again, it would be a miracle.

The miracle arose, one after another one: instead of one child, it turned out to be three!

I found out about the number of children through the signs that I was given long before I went to see them on ultrasound.

The doctor who saw them first on the machine was the same one that had said that I wouldn't be able to have any more children. Then she deduced that all three would not develop normally, and only two will remain. It happens often, she said.

I had another opinion on the matter. The Lord has given me three children, I will bear them properly, and all of them will be born healthy and well. That was precisely what happened.

Later, the signs showed me that I had to give birth to two more children. That's how we had seven kids now.

I have a husband with whom we have been together for over 36 years. With him, we have conceived and raised our seven treasures - therefore, there are no "step-children," no "adoption," nor any of them is an "error." Thanks also to the signs, I was able to reconsider my perception of our relationship, and I managed to save my marriage.

From an electro engineer, I became an artist, an art teacher, and a writer. From a woman of science, I became one who paints abstract paintings and for many years, has been engaged in interpreting the signs and synchronicities that are given to us by the higher dimensions.

Again following the signs, I signed up to study Neuro-linguistic programming and became a life facilitator.

The signs took me to all sorts of healers who helped me clean up my various traumas, not only from this life but from previous ones. Heal not only my baggage but also those of my ancestors, which in turn, made me a healer, too.

I was guided to travel often by telling me where and how to go. Even though I am often traveling alone, the fact remains, I know I'm not actually alone, which is just fantastic!

I was born and raised in a small village in a country in Eastern Europe. My first move ever was to go live in one of the biggest cities, and the last – so far – our entire nine-family member came to live in one of the world's capitals – Montreal! Without knowing or relying on anyone, only with faith in God and with the confidence that we are in the right place.

It is also a miracle that after the bearing and raising of our seven children, and after all that I have experienced, I am generally healthy, full of energy, and I am having all sorts of projects for the future.

Besides my native language, I also speak French, English, Russian, and a little Italian. I studied Spanish too, seven years of German, and as soon as I had free time, I would practice them.

I am telling you this regarding language not to brag but linking it to the most important subject that I will speak to you in the book.

I find it a great advantage to be able to understand different people in their native language. But it's nothing compared to talking to... The universe!

Yes: There is a language that the universe speaks to us regularly. Actually, we are in constant conversation with it. I call it "the language of the universe." And this is a miracle of miracles that I'm going to share with you here.

For about 25 years now, I have been given a knowledge that will undoubtedly be of great importance, and that is why I was asked to pass it on to others.

During this period, the universe sent me all kinds of signs, synchronicities, coincidences, omens.

As a result of which I was convinced that there were no accidents, everything happened for some reason and that with our thinking, we create our reality!

I have thousands (no less!) evidence of this, and a large part of them will be given to you in the book.

We are eternal beings in a body and came here on a journey. These signs and synchronicities are given to us, and they are like our own GPS that leads us along our earthly path, called Life.

They also warn us and prepare us for any meaningful changes in our lives. And they do all sorts of other things too...

They are extremely useful when we start something or even just as we think to get it started! They tell us literally:

1. Yes, go ahead, that's a good idea! It will work, keep working at it until it manifests.
2. Or, no, don't do that, it won't bring you anywhere! Stop!
3. There is a third option in which they tell us:

Yes, that's good, but it's not the right time

Or else: It is not exactly as you imagine it, so ask more questions and follow the signs.

I'm going to give you some examples here to show you how the signs helped us.

In these cases, they told us:

You will succeed in achieving your goal, keep moving forward!

To start off with a positive outcome, I will tell you a little story:

The immigration procedure for Canada was super long and excruciating. At some point, I lost all hope. However, the signs were definite that everything would end in our favor. In fact, we did succeed.

As we decided to buy a house and found the first, several banks refused to give us credit, even only 120 thousand dollars. For this reason, I gave up searching for another house, but the signs insisted that we continue the search.

When we found the right house that we liked (prettier and better place), another bank gave us an even bigger loan!

When we came to Quebec (where our engineering diplomas are not recognized), at first, there was no hope. But thanks to the encouragement of the signs, we persevered, and later on, my husband found a job that he loved.

To give you another example where they suggested not following through:

-Don't do that!

I was suggested by doctors to go through an operation, but the signs were adamant that I should not go through with it. I decided to listen to them, and even though I didn't know how to solve my problem, I refused the operation. And I choose wisely because later, I found other means which were unknown to me beforehand.

Something that always fascinated me is that whenever we experience some type of problem, we can understand why it happened and what to do about it without having to repeat the same mistake all over again.

The other reason why I continued to have this conversation with the invisible is that we can be answered any questions we have. It depends on its nature and our level of understanding; answers can come at different times: in a second, in minutes, after a couple of hours, or even days. And sometimes after a year, two, or even more, but one thing's for sure-- they're coming. When the time comes, they will appear!

I will list a few examples where the reliance on signs and synchronicities is not only useful, but it can save us a lot of trouble and headaches. And even our lives. Or the lives of our loved ones...

Relationships are often accompanied by quite a few challenges. Because of the past experiences that each of us had, we tend to blame another person and ready to end that relationship. Sometimes it is worthy to work on it together to resolve the issues, but sometimes, it's already over and best to break it off. The signs tell us whether to stay or end the agony.

They will tell you if ever you must choose between two people, which one is the right one.

The signs can advise you to build a family, and if the person is right for you, or even to conceive a child together

It is highly imperative that you follow them because if you are thinking of going on a trip abroad, sometimes we want to go somewhere, but you shouldn't, because it's dangerous for you or someone from your family.

I want to give you examples here because there were things that so shocked me that I wanted to protect as many people as possible.

In Haiti, when many Canadians had gone, there was an earthquake.

In Brussels, as people went to celebrate their Easter, there was a bomb at the airport, and many passed away that day.

There was an American family who went to England with their only child, and the child was kidnapped there.

Believe me – they were told not to go there. But when we don't understand how to follow the signs, this is what happens.

There is another, exactly the opposite case: you have to go somewhere; however, you do not want to go at all due to the fact that your ego wants to keep you comfortable where you are.

It's better to be aware of that which holds us back than to stay ignorant about it.

However, it is essential to go because there, you can meet the person you are looking for, or just there, you will find the next piece of the puzzle that we each need to continue the right path.

Perhaps the most crucial information that it also gives us is regarding our health issue and urgent measures that need to be taken so that it's not too late.

As I have already mentioned, but because it is of utmost importance: When we decide to do something new, we are given clear signs, is this good or should we not get on with it. Or – yes, but it's not the time yet,

They help us to understand what the right profession is for us, and accordingly, what steps we should take that brings us closer to our mission on Earth.

They tell us when we need to get a new language that will be of use to you later for whatever reason.

You will need to change your job;

You must go to live in another city or country;

Instead of one way of traveling, it is good to choose another;

If something isn't going accordingly as it should, what is the reason, and what should be done for it to be fixed?

Protect yourself from people who have bad intentions towards you, but pretend to be your friend.

A natural disaster is imminent, and you must take appropriate measures or simply leave the place where you live;

You will be able to uncover yourself more exciting stories from your previous reincarnations;

You will understand what binds you from the previous lives to the people who are now around you;

The list can be infinite...

Perhaps you are looking forward to understanding how miracles works or you think assume that it is too good to be true...

Yes, that's quite possible. And many other things.

Naturally: It all depends on your effort and willingness to learn. Because what you hold in your hands is more like a textbook than a regular book.

The theory of this textbook has been taken from real experience.

Everything has been experienced by me, my family, or close acquaintances. Everything.

I will introduce my beliefs to you in a separate chapter, here I will only mention some of them. I'm sure you've heard some already.

For example:

There are no accidents, and in fact signs are the language in which the universe speaks to us!;

And that our thoughts create our reality and all we can imagine; we can realize it;

That there is time and place for everything;

That everyone has a mission in life;

Each of us has a higher self, he is our greatest friend and is always at our disposal, etc.

Another part may not have heard them. For example:

If one does not do what he or she should-he or she will not get what he or she wants;

The problems are resurfacing can help us improve our lives as much as anything else.

The Invisible world warn us of any danger or any grand changes in our lives that are ahead.

When two are arguing about something it is very easy to understand who is "wrong" and who is "right";

All that we need is either shown, given or told to us directly;

If we do not finish our work in this life, it is added to the next;

The more urgent something is, the more frequent and serious signs are given to us;

The more developed level of consciousness we have, the more we must be careful what we wish for or what we do;

We constantly go through a variety of exams and tests;

Sometimes the best thing is not be given what we want,

Also, that we have to be VERY careful what we want because it can be done, etc.

Unfortunately, I cannot promise you that the book alone will improve your life.

Fortunately, however, you can do it if you carefully read and experiment, until you find out how things are and convince yourself of what is said in the book. The next step is to follow the instructions from the universe, even at the beginning it seems inexplicable, bizarre, unacceptable.

One thing I can tell you: The Universe knows what is best for you.

Our lives are determined by the choices we make. What choices you'll make – it's up to you. I wish you to make wise choices!

But even if they're not so wise, it's normal. There's no mistakes, there's only a feedback! When you learn to interpret the signs and do what you are told, you will see how the negative feedbacks diminishes more and more.

Signs can improve your life a lot! However, if you think you will always understand everything and that you will not make any mistakes, it already seems too optimistic. But there's nothing wrong with that. I believe some things are meant to happen...

Signs will help you find what you are looking for in the easiest, fastest, and most efficient way possible.

Just do what is instructed in the Scriptures: Knock and you will be opened, seek, and you will find!

From all my heart I wish you to find what you are looking for.

Have a nice reading, friends!
